HALO - Helping Animals Live On, Inc.
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

1. Organization:

HALO - Helping Animals Live On, Inc. (the Organization) is an Arizona non-profit organization whose primary mission is to help end the pet overpopulation by rescuing animals, such as dogs and cats, and providing temporary shelter to abandoned animals until a permanent home can be found. The Organization helps control the pet overpopulation by spaying or neutering all their adopted animals.

The Organization derives a portion of its financial support from the operation of its thrift store. Donations are picked up by the Organization and brought to the store to be sorted. Items determined to be in good condition are placed for sale in the store. Other primary financial support is derived through donor contributions, contracts, grants and adoption/sterilization fees.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Use of Estimates:

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statement presentation is in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) guidance on Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under this guidance, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. The Organization has no permanently restricted net assets.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of reporting, cash and cash equivalents include short-term liquid assets that are easily convertible to known amounts of cash and have insignificant credit risk. Cash received with donor stipulations limiting its use to long-term purposes is shown as restricted. There is no restricted cash at December 31, 2015.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Use of Estimates (Continued):

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable for services performed are reported at the amount management expects to collect on balances outstanding at year-end. The Organization does not normally require collateral. Management closely monitors outstanding balances and writes off, as of year-end, all balances that have not been collected by the time the financial statements are issued. Receivables are considered delinquent when past due over a period of three to six months. No allowance has been established, as management believes all amounts to be collectible.

Unconditional Promises to Give

Grant income is recognized when the grantor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Grant income that is restricted by the grantor is reported as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restriction. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. Unconditional promises to give expected to be collected in less than one year are measured at net realizable value. Long-term unconditional promises to give expected to be collected are measured using present value of future cash flows.

The Organization uses the allowance method to determine uncollectible unconditional promises to give. The allowance is based on management's analysis of specific promises made. There are no promises to give outstanding at year-end.

Inventory

Inventory, which consists of donated clothing, household goods and various other items, is held for sale at the thrift store. Since there is no cost to the Organization, inventory is recorded at fair value determined by the price at which the item can be sold. Revenue is recognized when the donated items are sold and in-kind donations are recorded at an amount equal to the sales revenue from the thrift store. Changes in year-end inventory amounts are recorded as additional sales revenue or cost of goods sold, as appropriate.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost or, if donated, at the approximate fair value at the date of donation. The Organization's policy is to capitalize asset purchases generally in excess of $500. Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies and Use of Estimates (Continued):

Revenue Recognition

Contributions received are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions restricted by the donor are reported as an increase in unrestricted net assets if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the contribution is recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction. When a donor restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Fee income is recognized in the period in which the service is performed.

Store sales are recognized as income on the day the sale occurs.

Donated Assets and Services

Donated assets and services are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Donated assets consist of vehicles, services, and facilities. The donations are recorded at their estimated fair value at the date of donation and are included in revenues and expenses or capitalized if appropriate. Volunteers also provide services throughout the year that are not recognized as contributions in the financial statements since the recognition criteria were not met.

Expense Allocation

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities and in the statement of functional expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified by the Internal Revenue Service as other than a private foundation.

The Organization adopted guidance issued by the FASB which established a single model to address accounting for uncertain tax positions and clarified the accounting for income taxes by prescribing a minimum threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. An uncertain tax position represents a tax position management determines may have a less than 50 percent chance of being sustained upon an examination by a taxing authority.

Income Taxes (Continued)

While the Organization does not currently include an income tax provision in the financial statements, management monitors the reporting of uncertain tax positions used in preparation of the Organization's tax return, including applicable interest and penalties related to material uncertain tax positions, which could result in recording of an income tax provision in the future. The Organization evaluated its tax position for all open tax years. Currently, the tax years open and subject to examination are the 2012, 2013 and 2014 tax years by the Internal Revenue Service and the 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014 tax years by the Arizona Department of Revenue.

Uses of Estimates

As applicable, management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Those estimates and assumptions can affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

Date of Management's Review

Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date of the auditors' report, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Concentrated Credit Risk:

The Organization maintains its available cash at various financial institutions. The Organization's interest bearing funds are insured by the Federal Deposit Institution Corporation up to $250,000. At various times, the balances in these accounts may exceed federally insured limits. The Organization has not experienced any losses and does not believe it is exposed to significant risk associated with its cash and cash equivalents.
